We are delighted to announce that the fourth annual Christ's Hospital Transatlantic Scholarship Exchange Dinner will be held in Baltimore on April 9th at the Mount Vernon Club. Those who attended last year's dinner will remember that this is a wonderful opportunity to spend time with current CH pupils who will be in Baltimore attending Bryn Mawr and Gilman Schools for a few weeks, as well as to connect with Old Blues. John Franklin, the head master of Christ's Hospital and his wife Kim will also be with us, as well as a number of the board members of Friends of Christ's Hospital. This is also a great event for Old Blues with children who might be interested in spending some time at CH to meet some CH pupils and learn a little about their parents' alma mater. Please do feel free to bring your teenagers if they can be persuaded to join you!

The Mount Vernon Club

The Club is located in the historic Mount Vernon district of Baltimore. Some background can be found here: <http://terpconnect.umd.edu/~jlehnert/highlights.htm>.

Where to stay

In the past, many of our guests have stayed at The Peabody Court Hotel <http://www.peabodycourthotel.com/> which is on Mount Vernon Square and is very convenient to the club as well as being close to the Walters Art Museum. There are plenty of other hotel options – all the usual chains – some of them very new and close to the water like the Marriott Waterfront <http://www.marriott.com/hotels/travel/bwiwf-baltimore-marriott-waterfront/>, others more boutique style like The Monaco <http://www.monaco-baltimore.com/>.

Beds are available chez O'Brien for any young Old Blues who need a place to stay.

How to pay

Please make checks payable to Sally O'Brien and note Transatlantic Exchange Dinner. Send to:
Sally O'Brien, 103 Ridgewood Road, Baltimore, MD 21210
